A Chapter of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, having been ſummoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, all in their Mantles, attended the Sovereign in his own Apartment; and being called over by Garter, a Proceſſion was made from thence to the Great Council-Chamber in the following Order:

Marquis of Rockingham,
Earl of Northumberland,
Earl of Cardigan,
Earl of Winchelſea and Nottingham,
Duke of Rutland,
Duke of Newcaſtle,
His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter,
His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York,
Garter King of Arms,
The Prelate,
The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being ſeated, Garter acquainted His Majeſty, that Sir Francis Molineux attended at the Door, and humbly prayed Admittance to take the Oath of Office, as Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod of that moſt Noble Order; who, being in his Mantle, was conducted to the Sovereign by Garter, carrying the Enſigns of Black Rod's Office; and, kneeling down, the Oath was adminiſtred to him by the Prelate: Garter then preſenting the Chain with the Badge to the Sovereign, and afterwards the Rod, His Majeſty was pleaſed to put the Chain about Black Rod's Neck, and to deliver him the Rod; and having kiſſed His Majeſty's Hand, he withdrew to his Place.

Garter then acquainted the Sovereign, that the Dean of Windſor attended at the Door, and humbly prayed Admittance to be ſworn as Regiſter; whereupon being brought in by Garter and Black Rod, he was ſworn, and inveſted with the Enſigns of the Regiſter's Office in like Manner.

The Regiſter then ſignified to the Chapter the Sovereign's Pleaſure for filling up the three vacant Stalls; and as by the Statutes none but a Knight can be elected, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales was knighted by His Majeſty with the Sword of State. The Chapter then proceeding to the Election, his Royal Highneſs was declared duly elected. Garter then preſenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majeſty delivered it to the two ſenior Knights, who buckled it on the Prince's Left Leg, the Regiſter reading the Admonition: Garter then preſented the Ribbon with the George; and the Prince kneeling down, His Majeſty, with the Aſſiſtance of the Knights, put it over his Shoulder, the Regiſter pronouncing the Admonition.

The Chapter then proceeded to the next Election; and his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was declared duly elected: His Highneſs was thereupon received at the Door of the Chapter Room, by the two junior Knights, and conducted between them to the Sovereign, being preceded by Garter, carrying the Enſigns on a Cuſhion, and Black Rod; and his Serene Highneſs was inveſted with the Garter, Ribbon and George, in the ſame Manner as the Prince of Wales.

The Earl of Albemarle was then brought in by Garter and Black Rod, and knighted with the Sword of State; being afterwards elected, and inveſted with the Enſigns of the Order, as the Princes had been.

Garter then calling over the Knights, a Proceſſion was made back in the Order as before, except that the Regiſter went next before the Prelate, between Garter on his Right Hand and Black Rod on his Left.

St. James's, December 27.
